3-03-01-01. Credit-hours required.

Continuing education reports are due from all CPAs and LPAs, except those on retired or inactive status, before July first of each year and any credit-hours submitted must be for the previous July first through June thirtieth.

At the end of each continuing education reporting year, each CPA and LPA, while holding out to the public as a licensee in this state must have completed one hundred twenty credit-hours of acceptable continuing education in the immediate preceding three reporting years, including six credit-hours of professional ethics content, and a minimum of twenty credit-hours each year.

At the end of the first full continuing education reporting year following receipt of an initial original certificate, an accountant must meet the applicable per year minimum, and must meet the applicable three-year minimum, including ethics content, two years thereafter.

3-03-01-02. How credits determined.

1. Continuing education programs are measured in one-fifth-hour increments, with one-fifth hour of credit awarded for each full ten minutes of instruction.
2. Only class hours or self-study equivalents, and not preparation hours, are to be counted.
3. Service as a lecturer or discussion leader will receive credit to the extent that it contributes to the individual's professional competence, to a total credit limit equal to twice the program's credit allowance for enrolled participants. Repetitious presentations are not to be counted.
4. Courses taken for university or college credit may receive continuing education credit at the rate of fifteen credit-hours per semester hour of institutional credit, or ten credit-hours per quarter hour of institutional credit.
5. A CPA or LPA teaching a specific university or college level accounting course for the first time may be granted credit for preparation and instruction to the extent that it contributes to the individual's professional competence, up to a limit of twice the continuing education course credit available for CPAs or LPAs taking the course. No credit is available for repetitious teaching of the course or for subsequent teaching of courses with similar content.

3-03-01-03. Effective date.

Repealed effective April 1, 2024.

3-03-01-04. Exceptions.

The board shall consider exceptions to the continuing education requirements for reasons including military service, retirement, and circumstances beyond the accountant's reasonable control. Nonresident accountants are exempt from the requirements of article 3-03 if they verify that they meet the continuing education requirements of their jurisdictions of residence, provided the board considers those continuing education requirements to be substantially equivalent to those of this state. Nonresident accountants practicing public accountancy in North Dakota shall meet the public practice continuing education requirements of their jurisdictions of residence.
